IN MEMORY

Little Jessie May Hopson, born April 2, 1920, departed this life March 1, 1922, aged one year, eleven months and 29 days. She was the daughter of Mrs. Alice and Marvin Hopson of Cliffside, Boyd county, Ky.

Mrs. Hopson is the second daughter of Rev. R. H. and America Casaday of Fallsburg, and Mr. Hopson is a son of Lige Hopson of Buchanan. The remains of little Jessie May were brought to Buchanan and buried by the side of a little sister. The funeral was preached by Rev. Paul Powell, pastor of the M. E. Church South, Ashland, Ky.

The mother gave in tears and pain the flowers she most did love. She knew she would find them all again.
In the fields of light above.

O not in cruelty and wrath
The reaper came that day
'Twas an angel visited the earth
And took the flowers away.

There is no flock, however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there.
There is no fire, however defended,
But has one vacant chair.

She is not dead—the child of our affection—
But gone into that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection.
And Christ himself doth rule.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Josephine Stone was born in Pike county, Ky., in the year 1900 and moved to Lawrence county, Ky., with her parents in 1908. She was the youngest daughter of John E. and Mintie Fugate; was raised at Cadmus and Fallsburg. She was a fine little woman, loved and respected by her many friends. She was married to Fred Stone February 16, 1921 at her home at Fallsburg, Ky., and they moved to Pike county and settled at Mossy Bottom and lived happy until the sad night of the 8th of April 1922 when by mistake, she took a tablet of bichloride of mercury which she believed to be an aspirin tablet. She was taken at once to the general hospital at Ashland, followed by a heartbroken husband, mother and sister.

All was done for her that could be done but they could not stay the hand of death which came on the 14th morning and took little Josie from a dear husband and two step-children, a dear mother, two sisters and four brothers.

Bro. L. N. Fannin, pastor of the Centenary M. E. Church South, Ashland, was at her bedside during the last hours of her life. He states that her last words of testimony were that she trusted herself in the hands of Jesus, her Saviour. He states she prayed much and said she was all right and ready to go and seemed to have a beautiful triumphant death and passed away as if she was going to sleep. She was a handsome and intelligent young woman. The writer knew her from early childhood, residing in sight of her home for seven years and is this moment looking over the ground where little Josie gathered the flowers of her 8th summer and a member of our Green Valley Sunday school for seven years.

She is now where the great physician and all the redeemed host of earth dwell. She is gone from our home, but not from our memory. She was a fond lover of flowers and while she is in heaven her flowers are blooming on earth. Weep not, dear ones. She is at rest. No more will her arm of love embrace you; be good and meet her again. The body was brought to her mother's home at Fallsburg and consigned to the arms of old mother earth, by the side of her father. Burial service was conducted by Bros. Cassidy and McClung on Easter Sunday. God bless all the bereaved relatives and friends.

ADAM HARMAN.
